

The program of my region

England

1 results

England, Yorkshire and the Humber, Across the UK

Festival of Archaeology -online and in person across the UK from 13-28 July 2024

De Grey House, St Leonard's Place, York, YO1 7HE

<https://www.archaeologyuk.org/festival.html>

The CBA Festival of Archaeology incorporates hundreds of in-person and virtual events delivered by community groups, heritage organisations, universities, commercial units, and more across the UK.

The 2024 CBA Festival of Archaeology will run from the 13-28 July and this year our theme is Archaeology and Community.

Visit the Festival area of our website to visit our event listings which will be available from February and find out what is happening in your local area. Or, if you can't wait until July why not visit our resources area where you'll find talks, craft activities, self-guided walks and much more available on-demand.

Or, if you would like to host your own Festival event visit our event organiser area to find out more.

Open house

Festival of Archaeology Launch at the Scottish Crannog Centre

Join us for a free fun-filled family day for the launch of this year's CBA Festival of Archaeology at the amazing and newly re-opened Scottish Crannog Centre!

Discover the skills and crafts used by the Iron Age community who originally settled on the shores of Loch Tay over 2,000 years ago through hands-on and creative activities for all ages.

This event will take place on Saturday 13 July from 10am to 4pm.

Free

Children, Family, General public

Accessibility

Mobility issues / wheelchair

Workshop

Archaeology and Community Theme Day

The Council for British Archaeology Festival team present a bonanza of community engagement in the Theme Day.

We will have our traditional (well it has been 3 years!) suite of skills you can master in your own home or as a group, as well as a creative event where you can get involved either in person or online.

Our amazing Youth Resources will also be launched.

Free

Family, Adults

Digital offers

#AskAnArchaeologist Day

The 2024 #AskAnArchaeologist Day will take place on Friday 19 July -get your questions ready!

#AskAnArchaeologist Day on X (formerly Twitter) is an official part of the CBA Festival of Archaeology and is a chance for people from all over the world to ask archaeologists questions and an opportunity for archaeologists to share their knowledge.

Free

Children, Family, Adults, Schoolchildren

Schoolchildren :

Primary, Secondary school (11-15 years), Secondary school (15 years and up)

Teachers are encouraged to post questions on behalf of their students.

Digital offers

A Day In Archaeology

Have you ever wondered what archaeologists really do? Do they just dig or are there other aspects to their work? A Day In Archaeology, sponsored by Prospect, showcases 'a day in the life' of archaeologists from all over the UK.

Blog posts are uploaded throughout A Day In Archaeology and stay on the Festival website site all year round to form a developing resource for anyone interested in a career in archaeology or wanting to find out more about the range of opportunities to participate.

This year's event takes place on Thursday 25 July.

Free

Adults, Schoolchildren

Schoolchildren :

Secondary school (11-15 years), Secondary school (15 years and up)

The blogs are a valuable resource for anyone considering a career in archaeology.

Open house

Festival of Archaeology Finale at Hardwick Hall

Join the CBA for a family fun-filled finale to this year's amazing Festival of Archaeology at the National Trust's Hardwick Hall, celebrating archaeology and community through hands-on and awe-inspiring activities for all!

We'll be sharing more details of the event soon so keep checking this page for more information.

This event takes place on Sunday 28 July from 10am to 4pm.

Access to the Festival activities will be free of charge but standard National Trust fees will apply for entry to the house.

Free
Children, Family, Adults, General public